Indian stocks crash amid 2 fresh cases

INVESTOR WEALTH TO the tune of ₹12.9 lakh crore has been wiped out during the last seven sessions. Investors are questioning the pace of recovery as the virus is showing no sign of getting contained. Tanvee Gupta Jain, economist, UBS Securities India, said, "Covid-19 outbreak and its consequent impact on global growth has led investors to question the likely pace of recovery, if any, this year. We believe a weaker China and global growth, and disruptions along the supply chain are likely to have some adverse impact on India's growth in the March quarter of 2020. For instance, sectors such as electronics, pharma, automobiles etc, could see supply disruptions in the value chain."

The slide in Indian equities comes at a time when the global markets showed some kind of resilience on hopes that global central banks would take some actions to stabilise the financial
